

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

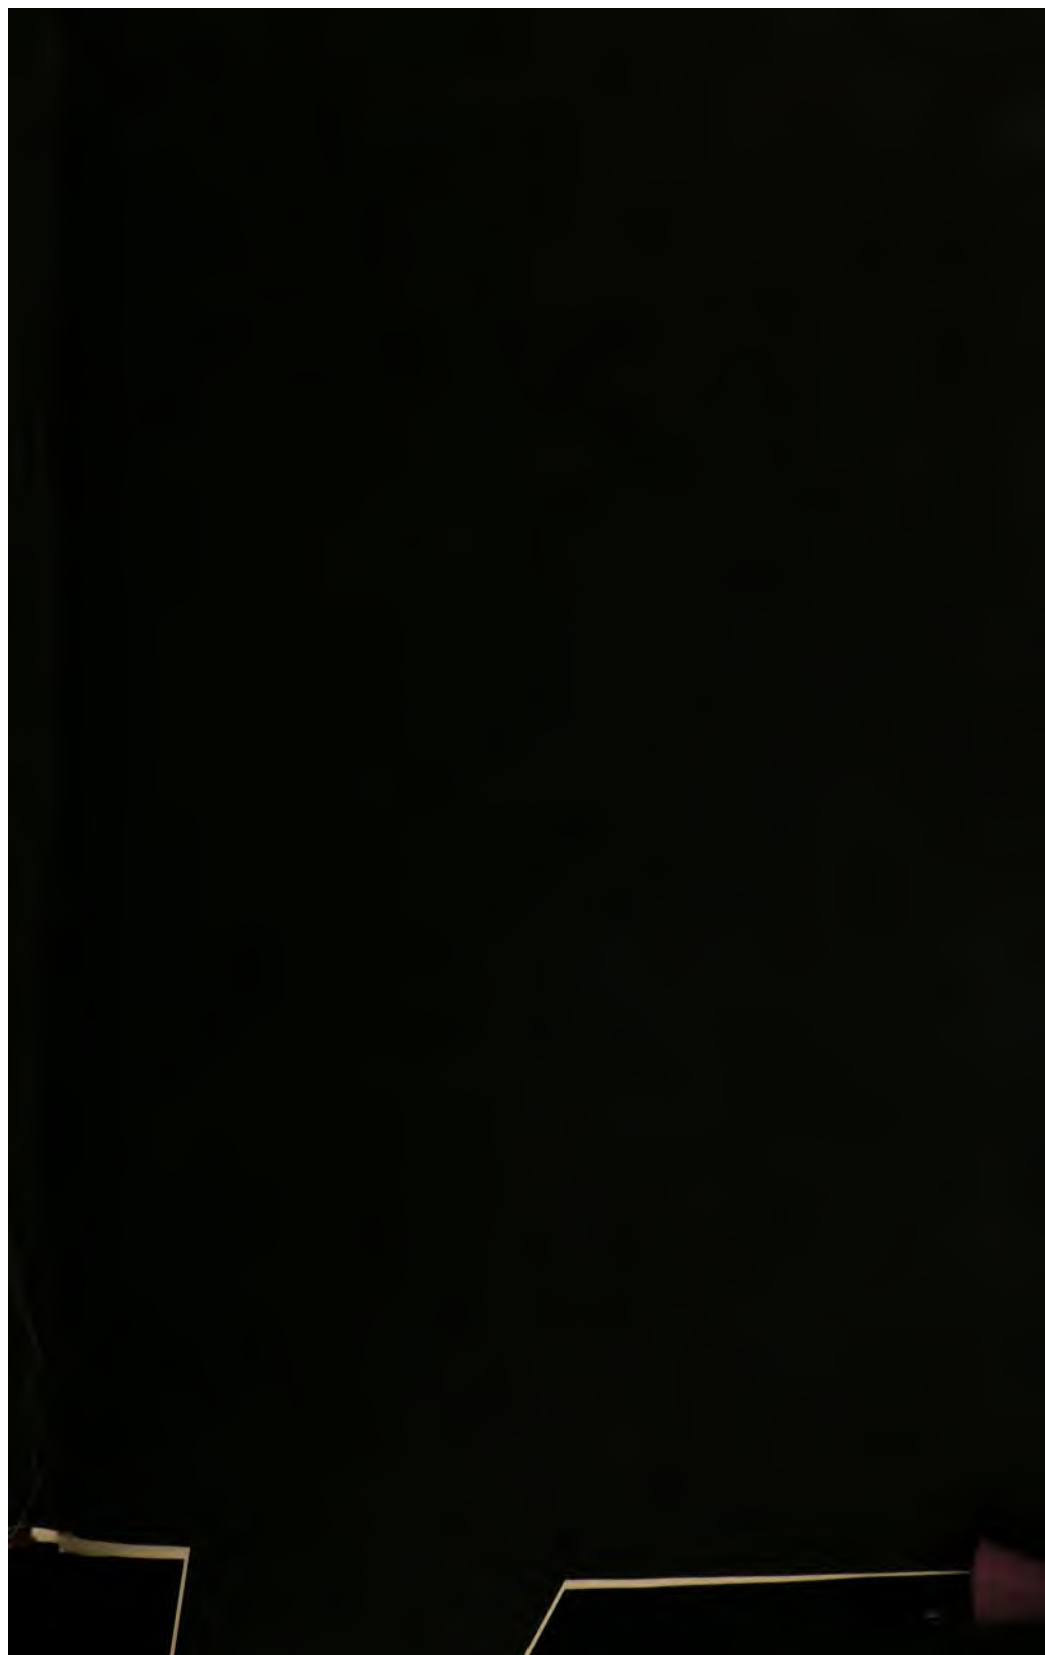

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

'Sir:

I received lately a Lettre from your selfe and others of your noble Society, wherein as many Titles were given me to which I had none, so that which I shold most willingly have acknowledged and mought with most Justice dayme, you were not pleased to vouchsafe me, that is that of a S<sup>t</sup> Johns man. I confesse I am both proud and ashamed of that, and the latter in respect that the fruites are unproportionable to the seed-plott: Yet S<sup>t</sup> as little Learning as I brought from you, and as little as I have since encreased and watered what I did bring, I am sure I still carry about me an Indelible Character of Affection and duty to that Society, and an extraordinary longing for some occasion of expressing that Affection and that Duty: I shall desire you to expresse this to them, and to adde this, that as I shall never forgett my selfe to be a member of their Body, so I shall be ready to catch at all meanes of declaring my selfe, to be not onely to the Body but every member of it

TO THE READER.

ON the 21st of January 1638 Dr Owen Gwyn, master of St John's college, and the senior fellows made an order :

That the register of the college should have a booke provided him, wherein he should from time to time write and register the names, parents, country, school, age and tutor of every one to be admitted into the college before their enrolling into the buttery tables ; and shall receive of each of them for his pains as the head lecturers and deans do<sup>1</sup>, for their admission.

Nine days afterwards appears the first entry in obedience to this rule, and the register, though more and more meagre in detail as time goes on, is complete to the present day<sup>2</sup>.

In this first register (see p. 10 no. 24) a 'former book' is cited, but I have not seen, nor do I think that Thomas Baker anywhere cites, such a book. It is barely possible that it may be lying hid in the college treasury.

For earlier admissions recourse must be had to university matriculations and lists of graduates, to the first register of scholars and fellows (both beginning 1545, the latter printed in Baker) and also to some scattered admissions belonging to the reign of Elizabeth, preserved in the same volume (see Baker p. 548 l. 3—20, 551 l. 45—552 l. 2).

My learned and painful friend the Rev. Dr Alexander B. Grosart (Complete works of Robert Herrick. Lond. 1876,

<sup>2</sup> When I spoke (Baker i p. viii) of "the missing register of admissions (from 28 June 1755 to 8 July 1767)" I went on the best information then open to me. I am now happy to exonerate the families of late masters and bursars from the suspicion then inevitable.

I p. xlvi—xlvii) is, so far as my knowledge goes (and his knowledge of the college register is due to information supplied by me), strictly accurate when he says :

“ From the loss of the university and college registers and other documents, it is impossible to trace him exactly; but there can be no question that he proceeded to the university”.

In what follows Dr Grosart has missed the plan of Baker's history, which, after tracing the fortunes of the society under the different masters, gives a succinct account (in Latin) of the bishops, and a catalogue of the fellows. Lives of all worthies of the college—even such lives as might be drawn up to-day from my manuscript collections—would fill many ‘bulky tomes’, and could not in conscience be offered to the syndics of the press or to the public as an edition of Baker's history.

“ Mr Walford casts doubt on his ever having been of St John's college, and in all professor Mayor's bulky tomes from the Baker mss<sup>1</sup> his name is sought for in vain, albeit innumerable nobodies (or bodies only) have found, perhaps inevitably, devout record and eulogy therein. It is singular that both these scholars should have overlooked the fact that two of his letters are expressly dated ‘Cambridg St Johns’, and that in a third in a receipt, he designates himself ‘a fellow commoner of St Johns colledg in Cambridg’. There is thus absolute certainty as to his having entered and attended at St John's college”.

Without disparaging our English Catullus, whom we are proud to hail as a Johnian, we may boast many greater worthies, who were never either masters or fellows here, or bishops<sup>2</sup>. If however Dr Grosart, or any one accepting his authority, sets down my silence about Herrick to ignorance, let him learn that many years ago I procured transcripts, chronologically and alphabetically arranged, of the unprinted graduati. In the latter I find 'Hearick, Rob., A. Tr., A.B. 1614, A.M. 1620,' with this note by Mr Romilly: "Commonly called Herrick: but he subscribed Hearick at both degrees. He was admitted at St John's. I cannot find his matriculation." Since the above was in type, turning to my manuscript Athenae Britannicae, begun in 1854, I find a note, written certainly more than twenty years back: "Herrick, Rob. fell. com. St Jo. 1615—17, letters (signed Robert Hearick) in Gent. Mag. 67. 102—3. Account of ibid. 66 pp. 461, 645." Am I dreaming, or did I send this to Dr Grosart, either directly or through Mr Aldis Wright, before the appearance of Herrick in the Fuller Worthies Library?

<sup>1</sup> In justice to Baker I must remark that the Baker ms. terminates on p. 300. The remaining 935 pages are not derived from the Baker mss. more than from any other printed or ms. authority.

<sup>2</sup> On the 2nd July 1870 the Rev. W. E. Lumb, vicar of Halford, Shropshire, pointed out to me three real omissions: (1) Folliott Herbert Cornewall, B.A. 1777, M.A. 1780, and fellow, who was bishop of Bristol 1797, Hereford 1803, and Worcester 1808 (see Hurd's life, p. 324); he died 1831; (2) Rob. Stanser, LL.B. 1789, D.D. Lambeth 1806, bishop of Nova Scotia 1816, died 1829; (3) James Walker, bishop of Edinburgh, B.A. 1793, M.A. 1796, D.D. 1826, died 1841. To these should be added George Smith, B.A. 1727, an able antiquary, and bishop among the non-jurors, who died 1756; George Mason, B.A. 1760, M.A. 1763, bishop of Sodor and Man, died 1783. Each of these five prelates may have been a

I should have passed this matter over in silence, did it not indicate Thomas Baker's ignorance of Herrick's residence at St John's. We may infer that no earlier register than that before us was known to Baker, or, in other words, that no earlier register existed in his time. The case stands thus: Ant. Wood had annexed Herrick, as many other sons of Cambridge; but in Herrick's case Baker raised no protest. Dr Bliss (A. O. III 251) however honestly gives him back to our St John's, referring to the very letters insisted on by Dr Grosart. Once more: One hearing Herrick's name for the first time, consults the oracles of Gorton or of Chalmers. Both know that Herrick was of this college; the latter cites Nichols, who prints these arcana, reserved for the eye of adepts.

Some quarter of a century ago I made an abstract of this register, chiefly for the use of Mr C. H. Cooper, then engaged on Athenae Cantabrigienses. He rewarded me by appending to many names short notes. These will be found below.

'nobody,' or even (if indeed child of man ever was) a 'body only,' but at least they were entitled to a place in Baker's history, as he designed it; and I owe them an apology for my neglect. How cheap is the wit: 'I know nothing of those ages which knew nothing.' How crushing Maitland's retort: 'How do you know so curious and important a fact respecting ages of which you know nothing?'

Last term the council of the college resolved to print the register in yearly instalments. I must have declined the task, had I known beforehand the difficulty of unmasking names of persons and places, taken down from lips of 'boys' not yet rid of their provincial brogue. As it is, the aid of many friends, and especially of Notes and Queries, has enabled me to crack most of my nuts. To each and all my hearty thanks. But the labour would have been slight, and valuable time might have been saved, if England and Wales possessed as complete a list of townships, hamlets, and farms, as Ireland has long enjoyed in a single blue book. Who will move parliament to issue an index to the ordnance survey? The value of such lists as this to the biographer, genealogist and philologist, is manifest. They also tell from age to age how far the college fulfilled its mission of uniting class to class. We see noblemen, baronets, esquires, gentlemen, meeting on equal footing with the professional and commercial classes, and with artisans. Together all went to the grammar school, together the more promising proceeded to the university; for plain living threw open the doors to every fortune. We boast of our reforms, but should be puzzled to shew that the highest and lowest of our countrymen find as much to attract them here now, as they did two centuries and a half ago<sup>1</sup>. Not sumptuary laws, but personal examples of frugality, are needed to draw poor scholars to the home of Cheke and Ascham.

Few colleges, I believe, have registers containing so much information as this owes to the wise regulation of Dr Gwyn. Nor can we expect from a succession of registraries the patience which we admire here. Not only the admissions themselves, with their numerous details, but often long testimonials, are conscientiously copied, in later

"St John's Cambridge seems always to have done its duty in befriending poor and deserving men; and it may be doubted whether in this respect recent enactments will improve it. Poor deserving men seem no longer to meet with eleemosynary aid as in former days."

times at least by the hand of the president, who certainly was fitted for better things than the mere transcription of stereotyped forms<sup>1</sup>. If we would hand down to posterity as rich materials for history as we have received, we must call in the aid of the printing press.

Might not all colleges issue to aspirants blank forms of the following type, to be filled up as a sine qua non before admission ?

Name in full

Place of birth

Day, month, and year of birth

Father's name in full

Mother's maiden name

Father's profession or status

School or schools, and masters

Time spent at school

---

The admission books themselves should add to these forms three lines :

College tutor

Whether fellow commoner, pensioner, or sizar

Date of admission

The mere entering of names and dates in these printed forms would be a slight labour, even in such a college as

<sup>1</sup> The late master, Dr Bateson, held that the masters of colleges should be the registraries. Certainly freshmen would thus enter our walls with a greater sense of responsibility,—of the 'solidarity' of all orders and degrees amongst us. Also the most permanent resident in each college would gradually master its archives, a branch of university studies hitherto at the mercy of casual inclination and opportunity.

Trinity; and the new registers could be consulted with far greater ease than the present.

I am happy to announce that a former scholar of the college, Mr P. J. F. Gantillon of Cheltenham, has generously volunteered to index the complete register. We shall miss some lessons, unless we have three alphabets; (1) names of persons, (2) names of places, (3) trade, profession, or rank. The information respecting each place or person should be collected under one head; but every form in which every name appears should find a place in the index, with a cross reference to the main article. References to admissions should be by date; all other references by page and line.

Among many friends who have helped me, I single out for special thanks my brother fellow the Rev. Henry Russell, who most carefully corrected the first four sheets or more by the register. I endeavour to give the names of places and persons exactly as I found them; where a word is enclosed in inverted commas, it must be understood that so it stands written<sup>1</sup>. That the surname of father and son is often differently spelt in the same line, will surprise no one conversant with documents of the seventeenth century.

Since I made my first transcript, the register has been bound, and, being mounted where torn or tender on tissue paper, is in parts less legible. In doubtful cases therefore, my copy has a certain value as evidence, and will accordingly ultimately be deposited with the original.

A few specimens of the original entries will more clearly explain my treatment of the register, than any lengthened description. (I expand contractions and punctuate throughout).

The facts recorded in the admissions seem to rest on oral testimony<sup>1</sup>, rather than on written documents. See p. 107 no. 47 'natus ubi, nescit, nisi in comitatu Warwicensi.' p. 165 no. 51 'de qua parochia nescit.' p. 168 no. 32 'natus Lincolniensis, sed in quo oppido nescit.' So also Thomas Baker (MS. IV 241 Brit. Mus. = A 279 Cambr.), commenting on the admission of Titus Oates at Caius 29 June 1667, 'annum agens 18,' and at St John's 2 Febr. 1668, 'annos natus 18,' says: 'Compare his age upon the two registers, as it must have been given in by himself. 2 Febr. 1668 is very near the year 1669.'

The record is of interest from many points of view. I have neither space nor time to touch on more than a few.

Local antiquaries in every part of the kingdom, especially in the north (thanks to Sedbergh, Giggleswick, Bradford, Pocklington, and other schools) and west, as in Lancashire and Wales and Shropshire (thanks to Lancaster and Manchester and Bangor and Ruthin, and especially to Shrewsbury which has always been our best feeder) will find here many facts to aid their researches. Migrations from other colleges and from Oxford are not infrequent. I have given at length the testimonials brought by these immigrants: the discipline of Laud is apparent in the precision of the documents on pp. 57, 59, and also in the number of fellows resident and subscribing. Candidates for the head mastership of Pocklington (p. 97 no. 2), and for the head (p. 130 no. 19) and third<sup>1</sup> (p. 139 l. 15) masterships in Shrewsbury school were required to become members of St John's. It is plain that these appointments were regarded as a trust, to be bestowed on the fittest candidate, not as property of the fellows.

Of foreigners we find James Robert<sup>2</sup> (p. 12 no. 50), the modern Ulysses Isaac Basire (p. 27 no. 74), the puzzling John Archbishop 'natione Gallus' (p. 48 n. 55), Peter de la Peire [rather Pierre], or Peters (p. 161 no. 9). William Green (p. 138 no. 2) came from Dort school.

<sup>1</sup> Observe that the college of late only appointed to the first and second masterships; a privilege which, against the remonstrance of the town and all concerned, was snatched away by the first commission. Nothing in our history is more creditable to us than our relation to my old school, now in larger, healthier quarters, destined, we may hope, to a wider sphere of usefulness.

<sup>2</sup> The editor of La France Protestante, whom I consulted, cannot identify Vanshuart or Gavaring: he urges that the correct Latin for Franche Comté is comitatus Burgundiae. But the question is not what is the correct Latin, but what a registry, on the spur of the moment, would strike out as Latin. The father (or one of both his names) occurs as pastor of Rouen in La France Protestante vi<sup>1</sup> 458 b.

Errors in counties: Rugby, Derbyshire (p. 166 no. 3); Lloyndu, Merioneth (p. 97 no. 1); Rookeby, Westmorland (p. 108 no. 4); Aufold, Sussex (p. 148 no. 5); Landegay, Caermardinsshire (p. 118 no. 9). Haveningham (p. 71 no. 37) may perhaps be Hevingham, Norfolk, rather than Haveningham (or Hev-), Suffolk.

In p. 68 no. 1 Valentinian is an error for Valentine. In p. 151 no. 39 Cresheld, and in p. 171 no. 64 Parmeridry, are names unknown to me. Observe also Simonides as Christian name of a yeoman's son (p. 84 no. 5); Hamblet of a husbandman's (p. 30 no. 30).

In p. 11 no. 40 is an unpardonable blunder in syntax.

The names of towns are mostly given in English. For exceptions see p. 8, no. 9, p. 9 no. 14, p. 126 no. 29.

Often the birth-place (as Cliviog and Ussaker) is a mere house, perhaps a farm-house, and I must rely on those who have local knowledge to help my ignorance in such cases.

The historian will trace the influence of plague (p. 2 l. 15, p. 4 l. 35, p. 8 l. 6) and of war (pp. 66—68) in blank pages<sup>1</sup> or diminished numbers. 'Strand in the suburbs of London' (p. 86 nos. 6 and 7) speaks eloquently of the difference between 'now' and 'then.'

The trade, profession, or rank of fathers is generally given in Latin. A few general terms, as artifex (p. 71 no. 29), dominus (title of B.A.), iurisconsultus, iurisperitus, medicus, musicus, navigator, plebeius, sculptor (p. 158 no. 12) I have retained in the Latin only, as any translation might mislead. For the common ecclesiastical and academical terms, clericus, doctor, episcopus, fideiussor (surety), magister, rector, tutor, vicarius, I have given their known equivalents without the Latin; and so for the common titles of rank, armiger, baronettus, comes, eques (or e. auratus, or miles), generosus. The following list comprises at least the large majority of other appellations, for which I have given both my English and the Latin of the register. Observe how all-embracing were the arms of our Alma Mater.

Fathers and sons with different surnames: sometimes perhaps the son may have been illegitimate (cf. the saving epithet p. 2 no. 6 Robert Smyth, legitimate son of William Rudkyn); in other cases one or the other may have changed his name, or the stepfather may be named.

I have noted p. 2 no. 4 Thomas Boyer, son of Edmund Maudly. p. 16 nos. 16 and 17 Thomas and Peter Salisburiensis (Salisbury) sons of Salisburiensis Roberts. p. 24 no. 37 Cadwalader Jones, son of John Williams. p. 49 no. 62 Jeffrey Williams, son of William Jeffreys; no. 64 Elisha Rowland, son of Rowland Thomas. p. 53 no. 40 Edward Price, son 'Rhesi Morris'. p. 58 no. 17 Griffith Ellies, son of Ellis Jones. p. 92 no. 30 (an example of that variation in spelling the same name, which is almost the rule) Thomas Johnson, son of Edward Joynson. p. 94 no. 25 (probably a mere clerical error)

Henry Stapleton, son of Robert Staple. p. 98 no. 13 David Jones, son of Thomas Jones. Observe that most of these names are Welsh, and that at least in some cases, as in p. 49 no. 62, there is an approach to the Icelandic rule, by which the father's surname, docked of the patronymic suffix 'son', becomes the son's Christian name, and the father's Christian name, with the addition of the suffix, the son's surname.

Biblical christian names. A few are unusual: Mahaleel p. 24 no. 34; Eubulus p. 35 no. 31. Shadracke p. 79 no. 87. Of the traditional 'Praise-God' type I find one 'Suerty-on-high' Nichols p. 66 no. 3. 'Masterus' p. 19 no. 1 is no doubt a clerical error for Mattheaus; 'Justitianus' p. 117 no. 7 for Justinianus.

"Adopt a phonetic spelling, and your children; now tortured seven years over the horn-book, will read fluently after a six months' drill." So vaticinated a fellow of a college, equally admirable for a pessimism abominating in the lump our existing state, and an optimism hoping a millennium from every nostrum patented in church or state or letters. Here we have proof positive that pronunciation, as a guide to orthography, is but a μολύβδινος κανόν. Take a few samples<sup>1</sup>.

I shall always be glad to receive information respecting any member of the college, and will take care that, if I die before making use of it, it shall not perish. But there is one help to college historians which would cost but little, and which we who now hold college endowments, scholarships or fellowships, might set the fashion of rendering. True, here as at Oxford<sup>1</sup>, fellowships and scholarships have been degraded into money prizes. But nothing prevents our being a law to ourselves,—doing something to earn our inheritance<sup>1</sup>. Let us make each college library a storehouse of all works of all its members, reckoning it a disgrace to leave alma mater without contributing at least one book to her shelves. Archdeacon Hare, Mr Grylls and Mr A. A. Vansittart have set an excellent example in this respect.

Thus a fellow or scholar of St John's might complete our Ascham collection. Blessing Luther with the saintly Julius Hare, or cursing him with the martyred Johannes Roffensis, a pilgrim to the shrines of Lambeth or of Geneva, he might decree that Whitaker and Cartwright, Stillingfleet and Sergeant and Thomas Baker, should rest from strife in the bosom of their common mother, where the wicked cease from troubling and shibboleths entangle no more, where Trent and Augsburg, covenant and engagement and the three articles and abjuration oath, no longer vociferate: Vae victis. Commiserating Erasmus Darwin as a pompous prig, or revering him as Lucretius revered Epicurus, he might, in either case, care enough for him to make our set of his works perfect. Hailing, with Shelley, the Pythagorean discipline as a 'return to Nature,' or eschewing it as enfeebling the race, he might at least instal Dr William Lambe in our midst, a Genius of Life or of Death, as in some impartial Tussaud Valhalla. Grateful to his school, Shrewsbury for example, he might deposit in the scene of their early triumphs the labours of Butler or of Kennedy. Indignant that benefactors should be forgotten<sup>2</sup>, he might rifle bookstalls, wherever he went, for missing folios of Bishop Fisher or Bishop Morton. Fired by the tale of negro emancipation, he might track the manifestos of Clarkson and Wilberforce; cures. The commissioners found an enormous abuse subsisting illegally and they legalised it. . . . The mass of the college endowments were left as fellowships, after being, by a stroke of the pen, converted into real sinecures.'

or fan his missionary ardour in the pursuit of Henry Martyn. Even the Salamanca doctor might be pilloried, here and at Caius, a standing monument of Fortune's fickleness, of the vanity of vulgar and Parliamentary applause: Phlegyasque miserrimus omnis | admonet et magna testatur voce per umbras: | DISCITE IVSTITIAM MONITI ET NON TEMNERE DIVOS. Once set the stone rolling, and whatever a man's tastes or sympathies, he would find abundant choice in so wide a field. It is not fair to leave to historians of colleges the whole cost of collecting materials, over and above the toil of digesting them. Here, if anywhere, there should be a division of labour. Heretofore, it may be, one man has been left to do the work, and the others laughed at him for his pains, if they chanced to hear how he spent his time. Remember the fate of Hearne and Wood; ask why Cole's MSS. and half of Baker's are in London, and why Athenae Cantabrigienses came to so untimely an end.

|      | 33  | Baynton, Durham. One correspondent suggests Rain-ton (Surtees i 210), and the first letter may be R. There is a Baynton in Taxatio ecclesiastica Nic. IV (1802 fol.) p. 303. On p. 13 no. 10 we find a Mr Inglethorpe keeping a private school at Stanton Street, Durham. |
|      | 34  | Cardale? Garsdale near Sedbergh, Scardale in Winteringham E. R., Gordale scar, have been suggested; also Kirkdale curacy in the wapentake of Ryedale (spelt Kirdale in Nomina villarum Eboracensium, or index of all the towns etc. in the county of York , York 1768).   |

| 19   | 38  | Zanod? St Neot's is popularly called Sanoats, but I never saw it so written. No plausible interpretation has yet appeared.  |
| 22   | 25  | St Hillary's, Anglesea?   |

| 40   | 27  | Mattoxx. Mattocks farm is 2 m. E. of Ware.  |
| 31   | 38  | Wiersden. A more probable suggestion is Worden in Leyland hundred, sometimes written Wearden (Werden in Index Villaris ). "It is the manor house for Leyland, and belongs to the Farington family. William, son of George and Margaret Ffarington of Worden, was of St John's college, Cambridge; was sheriff of Lancashire 1761 and knighted on some public occasion; was major in the Lancashire militia and died unmarried 1781." |

| 35   | 31  | Place Goch. Very plainly written. I am told it must be Plas Coch, 'Red Hall' One near Wrexham, belonging to Wynnstay; one in the vale of Clwyd near Ruthin.   |
| 36   | 39  | The Dawson is no doubt a clerical error; indeed it may be Danson. Hailston, Westmorland? Correspondents suggest Alston N.E. Cumb. Hallstone in Coquetdale hundred, Northumberland.  |

- 50 12 Pulehill. 'Paul or Paghill in Holderness, on the Humber, 2 m. S.E. of Hedon.' This suggestion is overthrown by the following, which I owe to John Sykes, M.D. of Doncaster: "Pule Hill is in the parish of Silkston, co. York, and for several generations was the property of a family named Bamford."
- 51 17 Gwilyseg, Denbighshire?
- 22 Burgh. cf. p. 5 no. 44. Burgh hall and Burgh farm in Duxbury, Adlington, 2 m. S. of Chorley.

TO THE READER.

THIS part brings us to the end of the first register.

In preparing both parts for the press, I had the invaluable aid of my most accurate librarian C. G. H. Bielefeld, who died 25 Oct. 1885, at the age of 58<sup>1</sup>. His industry in collecting materials for the history of Oxford and Cambridge graduates is known already to some in both universities. As the several colleges do their duty to the memory of their worthies, he will be more and more appreciated by the few whose approbation is a reward and an encouragement to serious study in a frivolous age.

My first acknowledgement is due to the Rev. P. J. F. Gantillon, who has admirably carried out the plan of an index which I traced in my first preface. Biographers, local historians, and all who are interested in the relation of the university to the various sections of society, will find here abundant materials for enlarging and correcting the results of their researches.

Our bursar, Mr R. F. Scott, who is making the college magazine, The Eagle, a storehouse of authentic information regarding our early history, next deserves my thanks. The mantle of our historian, the 'ejected fellow' (absit omen!) Thomas Baker, seems to have fallen upon Mr Scott. Certainly I know of no bursar, from the first, who has been so much at home in the archives of the college.

I had almost despaired of digesting the mass of corrections supplied by correspondents, many of which have long been in type, when Mr Scott came to the rescue. He has also added, from the college books, notices of appointments to benefices, schools etc. and references to county histories, school registers, and other authorities. We have not thought it worth while to distinguish our respective contributions. I have handed over to Mr Scott my copy of the register and there is good hope that the work may be completed without interruption.

When the admission registers are in print, it will be time to turn to the registers of scholars, fellows and officers, and to print from the university registers the matriculations and degrees of all members of the college of the sixteenth and the early part of the seventeenth centuries.

Before ATHENAE CANTABRIGIENSES can be undertaken with hope of success, preliminary work, on the lines of the Oxford Historical Society<sup>1</sup>, is absolutely necessary. The old Proctors' books are, I am told, transcribed for the press. The graduati should be published as they stand on the register, year by year, with an alphabetical index<sup>2</sup>. H. R. Luard was, I believe, prepared to publish the lists from the earliest entry to 1800, but the authorities would not consent to so large a scheme. Luard knew well that the early editions beginning with 1659 are very inaccurate, and that the work must be done again for the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

Dr Venn, in response to my challenge, has published the first volume of the Caius register. Each new college that discharges its debt to the past, will make it more difficult for the remainder to keep silence. The Oxford colleges, Magdalen, Exeter, Oriel, All Souls, (Brasenose), Wadham, put us to shame. A week's plodding would suffice to copy the registers of a small foundation.

<sup>2</sup> Dr Calvert's edition of the early registers of Shrewsbury school is a model of scholarlike Sauberkeit, as the Germans say. It only needs to be brought down to date and furnished with an index.

There are many biographies entombed in the prefaces of folios and quartos, Latin and English, which need to be collected, annotated, and indexed. Dr Christopher Wordsworth's Ecclesiastical Biography is an admirable example of the Protestant Acta Sanctorum which a few friends, with the training and spirit of Mabillon or the Bollandists, might speedily carry to a happy conclusion. The Clarendon and Pitt presses could not be better employed than on memorials of this permanent kind.

For such a task no more bracing drill can be imagined than a critical edition of Strype. Dr Maitland's pamphlets on the Ecclesiastical History Society's unlucky venture on the life of Cranmer, together with his Essays on the Reformation and various papers in the British Magazine, may furnish a fruitful method and specimens of its application. By Henry Bradshaw's means the University received Maitland's corrected copy of the Oxford Strype, which I had coveted since I saw it at Gloucester nearly forty years ago. Baker's copies of Strype's works, especially of the Life of Parker, in St John's library, with additional notes by Dr Richardson, editor of Godwin's de Praesulibus, ought to be consulted, together with Strype's papers among the Lansdowne MSS. and in the University library.

In a time of transition it is specially necessary anti-quam exquirere matrem. As the tenants of endowments are, or are not, intimate with the history of our foundations, and with the labours of our forerunners, they will regard what they enjoy as a sacred trust, enabling them to do work which otherwise must, to the national loss, remain undone; or on the other hand as booty, to be spent on the gratification of individual tastes.

To the following friends the college is indebted in various degrees for valuable corrections, suggestions, and illustrations of the register. Mr Justin Simpson's contributions, in particular, are so numerous and important as to demand especial gratitude. Now that the index makes the whole volume more accessible, we may anticipate a much larger crop of suggestions, which will be thankfully received either by Mr Scott or by me.

On these names Professor Adams writes: 'I think the statement of the Icelandic rule is not quite correct. At any rate the practice in 10 Norway is that the father's Christian name, with the addition of sen = son, becomes the son's surname, but the son's Christian name may or may not be identical with the father's surname omitting the suffix. Thus if Hans Petersen were the name of the father, his son might be Peter Hansen, or David Hansen etc., and the sons of the first of 15 these would be called Petersen, and the sons of the second Davidsen. One of my stopping places in Norway was in the house of a man whose Christian name was Ola. His sons were all called Olsen, and his daughters Olsdatter'<sup>1</sup>.

P. xxvi n. on p. 110 no. 26. Mr Justin Simpson writes:

Robert Butcher was not the author of the Surrey and Antiquities of Stamford; its compilation must be placed to the credit of his father Richard Butcher. I have the first edition, in the preface to which, dated 1st Jan. 1646[—7], he presents the book as a new year's gift to his 5 readers, consequently at this time Robert *fil*s was certainly not more than six years old. Richard Butcher, the town clerk, was a citizen whose public and private career were not of the smoothest. The first time I meet with him in our local records is not, as is generally the case, the record of his baptism, but that next in importance, the taking of a 10 partner "for better, for worse," the lady of his choice being Dorothea Thesselwhete, a member of a family long resident here. He paid £3 to the senior chamberlain, Mr Edward Camock, 6 June 1 Car. I, and is designated in the municipal records as Richard Butcher, gent. In 1626, on the resignation of Richard Laughton, gent., the town clerk, Mr Butcher 15 was elected to fill the vacant post, and appears to have combined the calling of a publican with his official duties. He abused a man learned in the law, Mr John Balguy, the borough (deputy) recorder by preferring false accusations against him, "vsing scornfull and revyling speeches against all sorts of persons from the highest to the lowest, and sparing 20 none, neither earls, bishops, or others." He did not cease at this point, but called into serious question the king's prerogative, saying that he by Magna Charta ought not to fetch up any man by a messenger and that he had promised the contrary etc. Such revolutionary sentiments were not allowed to pass unchallenged. An information was laid against him 25 by the deputy recorder (State Papers, domestic series, Car. I, vol. 251) 27 Nov. 1633, which resulted in his making a personal appearance before the privy council in the following February and being committed to prison.

On 19 Febr. 163½ he penned a very humble letter of apology to William 30 earl of Exeter and his deputy recorder of Stamford (see vol. 260 of State Papers, d. s.). He lost his post and regained his liberty. He was elected a capital burgess or common council man 29 Aug. 1644, a com-burgess (alderman) 30 Aug. 1647; and dismissed the chamber on a 'weeding' out of the friends of the royal cause 27 Febr. 164½. According 35 to the session rolls his name was presented to the court 10 Apr. 1651 for "selling lesse than a full quarte of his best ale for iii<sup>d</sup>, contrary to the statute." With a view to reform the public manners Major Gen. Edward Whalley addressed a letter to the alderman (now mayor) from Lincoln, dated 25 Jan. 165½ (see my Lincolnshire tradesmen's tokens of the 17th 40 century, p. 106 note, by which it will be seen that both father and son were affected thereby). Richard Butcher was restored to the office of town clerk 6 May 1663. The parish register of All Saints, Stamford, records his burial thus: '1664: Richard Butcher, gent., husband of Dorothy his wife, Sept. 25.' He was not unmindful of his duty to his poorer neigh- 45 bours; the minute book states that at a common hall held 9 Febr. 166½ the alderman (Mr Robert Whatton), as corn had grown very dear (5s. a strike) and was likely to become dearer, proposed that the members of the hall, with other inhabitants of ability, should lay in a store of barley, in order to sell it at the above price to the poorer inhabitants. Mr Butcher 50

- was one who promised to lay in five quarters to meet the expected scarcity. The son Robert did not long remain a sizar. I find the baptism of Elinor, daughter of Robert Butcher gent., and Elinor, 21 Oct. 1659; the burial of Jane, wife of Robert Butcher, gent., 25 March 1658; Charles, 5 son of Robert Butcher, gent. and Elinor, born 5, baptised 16 July 1661; Robert Butcher buried 16 Oct. 1670, and 'widdo' Butcher buried 13 Jan. 28 167½ (all from St Mary's Stamford parish registers). By virtue of a royal warrant directed to certain commissioners, several members of the hall, who had gained a seat as supporters of the late government, were 10 removed 29 Aug. 1662 from the council, and among others Robert Butcher the elder was made a common councilman, a seat he held on the granting of the new charter by the king in 166½, but did not attain to any higher rank. His descendants however gained promotion, for I find Thomas Butcher was mayor 1688—9; John Butcher 1699—1700; Henry 15 Butcher 1728—4. The name is not extinct in Stamford.

Mr Fletcher writes: You have some remarks in the preface upon his (i.e. Peter Roberts', see p. xiv) surname differing from that of his father.

- 10 The following entries shew the process of formation of the surname.

The name Robert, that of the great grandfather was first adopted, a final 's' being, as usual, substituted for 'ab' or 'ap', but David Roberts having married a 'Salisbury' gave that name (rather a great one in these parts) to his son; whose descendants turned this new christian

"to the clarke (Mr Matthew Bunworth) and the serjeant 2s. vid. a

P. 25 no. 47 Zachary Cawdrey was Rector of Barthomley from 1649 to 1684. He died 21 December 1684. He was the author of A discourse of Patronage, being a modest Enquiry, into the Origin of it, and a further Prosecution of the History of it. With a true Account of the Original and Rise of Vicarages, and a Proposal for enlarging their Revenues; also an humble supplication to the pious Nobility and Gentry, to endeavour the Prevention of the abuse of that honorary Trust of Patronage; with a Proposal of some expedients for the regulating of it, most agreeable to the Primitive Pattern, wherein at once the just rights of Patrons are secured, and the Peoples Liberty of Elections of their own Ministers in a great manner indulged. 1675, 45 pp.

He was also the author of a funeral sermon on the death of George Lord Delamar, preached 9 September 1684. (Ormerod, History of Cheshire III 303—5. Nichols, History of Leicestershire II 259.) See the life of his pupil, Matthew Robinson.

P. 26 no. 54 William Bullock's epitaph has been printed by Mr Sidney O. Addy, of George Street, Sheffield, in the Derbyshire Archaeological Journal II 16.

P. 26 no. 60 Haselwood near Skipton must be meant, as Burnsall is in the same district of Yorkshire (the Rev. J. H. Clark of West Dereham).

Diary of Peter Roberts, Registrar of St Asaph's (British Museum 9512, E. E. 8). Letter from Mr G. Rutter Fletcher, Solicitor, London.

See also P. 16 no. 16 and 17.

Mr Fletcher adds: 'John Rutter died in 1658. By his will dated 20 October in that year and proved in London 24 February 1658, he desired to be buried in Whitchurch, Denbigh. His ancestors had lived in or near Denbigh since 1480, and seem to be a branch of the Rutters of Kingsley, Cheshire. John Rutter you will observe married a sister of Peter Salisbury.'

P. 31 no. 39 On 11 September 1660 the College presented William Morgan 'Doctor of Phisick' to the (sinecure) Rectory of St Florence, Pembrokeshire. He died in 1662, when his successor was appointed.

P. 31 no. 41 Peter Fulwood afterwards settled at Stamford and was by will a benefactor to the poor of the town. His will, dated 4 July 1642, proved in the prerogative court of Canterbury 15 March 1644 (Rivers 55) says he was born at Newark upon Trent, and gives 5 the poor 20s. to be for ever paid yearly into the hands of the vicar or curate and churchwardens, to be by them distributed to the most needy, impotent and most deserving poor of the said parish (Mr Justin Simpson).

P. 32 n. 50. Godfrey Wildbore. See Memoir of Thomas Broughton, Yorkshire Archaeological Journal iv 377—380 n. (Dr Sykes).

P. 33 no. 2 Kirkby is no doubt South Kirkby, where there are now monuments to the Wentworths dated 1653, 1684, 1720. (Mr M. H. Peacock, Wakefield Grammar School).

P. 35 no. 29. See p. 63 no. 25. Walter Kirkham. The family entered 15 their pedigree in the heralds' visitation of Northamptonshire in 1618. I did not see the entry of his baptism in All Saints parish register, but that of two of his brothers, John 15 April 1625, and Henry 7 Dec. 1628. Alice, a daughter of Robert Kirkham, esq., the father, was baptised 16 Jan. 1624, and buried 8 June following. Her mother was Anne, only daughter
 20 of Francis Browne of Toilethorpe, co. Rutland, and Stamford, co. Lincoln, esq., and Lucy his wife, daughter of George Mackworth, esq., and sister of Sir Thomas Mackworth, the first bart. of Empingham, co. Rutland. Robert Browne, clerk, rector of Achurch, Northants, uncle to Anne Kirkham, was the founder of the sect known as 'Brownists'. He died
 25 in Northampton gaol cir. 1636, aged about 80, to which he had been committed for "assault and battery," or in other words for assaulting a parish constable, who had demanded a rate of him. In the early part of his career he was protected by his relative, the lord treasurer Burghley, who frequently stood his friend. In Blatherwick church, Northampton,
 30 is or was in Bridges' time, a monumental inscription to Robert Kirkham of Fineshead, esq. who died 15 Aug. 1656. (Mr Justin Simpson).

P. 35 no. 31. Is there any difference between Goch and Coch? The Thelwalls were of the Plas Coch (or Goch) in the Vale of Clwyd. The "Mr Eubule Thelwall" of Hist. MSS. Report iv 343, is probably 35 the very individual to whom this entry refers (Mr Beedham).

P. 35 no. 32 Toby Stoyte the father was vicar of Wirksworth, Derbyshire, and Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford. Edward Stoyte was J. P. for the County, Town and University of Cambridge. He married Ursula, daughter of Thomas Russell, Alderman of Cam-40 bridge, and had issue. See Genealogist III p. 310.

P. 35 no. 32. John Stoyte the elder, parson of Uffington, will dated 20 July 1586, proved 16 June 1587, in prerogative court Canterbury (37 Spencer), in which he directs his body to be buried in the chancel of that church. He names his sons, John, and his son John, Toby and his 45 son William, Nicholas and Henry. He bequeathed to the poor of Uffington and of Gamlingay 40s. each parish; to Merton College, Oxford, £6. 13s. 4d.; rest of goods etc. to his wife Alice, sole executrix. Thomas Stoyte, clerk, parson of Wakerley, Northants, was buried in that church 3 Nov. 1652.

In the parish registers of St Mary's, Stamford, I found the following entries: 1617 Susanna, baptised 21 April, 1623 William, baptised 24, buried 26 Sept., children of "Rychard Stoyte"; and the burial of Mr Richard Stoyte 14 Sept. 1640. The will of Alice, widow of the parson, dated 3 June 1591, proved 14 Oct. following in the prerogative court 5 Canterbury (St Berbe 72). She directs her body to be buried in the chancel of Uffington (church), "so near as it may be to wher my husband lieth buried." She names her sons Henry (?) Nicholas, John and Henry Stoyte. The parish registers of Uffington do not commence till 1684. Thomas Stoyte of Wakerley compounded for first fruits 23 Jan. 1624, 10 instituted on the presentation of Sir Richard Cecil, kt., 7 July 1624 (Mr Justin Simpson).

P. 38 no. 15 John Lake was baptised at Halifax 5 December 1624. In 1649 he settled at Oldham in the Parish of Prestwich, Lancashire, and was elected by the congregation to the charge of the 15 parochial church. He was Vicar of Leeds in 1659, collated to the Rectory of St Botolph's, Bishopsgate 1663. In 1668 he became Rector of Prestwich and canon residentiary of York. He was consecrated Bishop of Man in December 1682; translated to Bristol in 1684, and for his conduct in that city during Monmouth's re- 20 bellion was promoted to the See of Chichester. He died 30 August 1689 and was buried in St Botolph's, Bishopsgate. (Baines, History of Lancashire II 568; History of St John's College I 272).

P. 41 no. 40 Christopher Nesse was born December 26, 1621. Was a schoolmaster at Beverley, Vicar of Cottingham. Thence he went to Leeds where he was ejected in 1662. He died in London 29 December 1705 aged 84 and was buried in Bunhill Fields. He was a voluminous author (Calamy, An Account &c. II 799, ed. 2). 30

P. 43 no. 56 John Wyldbore<sup>1</sup> the father was presented to Tinwell cum Inghthorp rectory by the earl of Exeter 15 Sept. 1616, died 27 Oct. 1645. Blore says he was president of Sidney Sussex College (Mr Justin Simpson). 35

P. 45 no. 20 Richard Poyntz was only son of Sir James Poyntz, kt. (alias Morris) by Mary daughter of Sir Richard Smith, kt., of Leeds castle, Kent. She married secondly Maurice Barrowe, esq., of Westhorpe, Suffolk. I have notes of the wills of all these. Richard Poyntz was of North Okenden, Essex. He died a bachelor at Montauban, France, 15 Aug. 1643. His will was proved 8 Nov. 1643. The entry of his being the son of 'Richard Poynts, kt., of Uppingham', is incorrect. There was no such knight, and I am quite sure as to the above statements. I have specially studied the history of 40

P. 76 l. 18 For 36 read 37.

15 P. 76 no. 37 John Hall was admitted to Gray's Inn 7 June 1648. He was the eldest son of Michael Hall of Consett and Elizabeth Gyll. He was born in August 1627. In 1646, the year in which he entered the College he published 'Horae Vacivae, or essays with some occasional considerations' to which was prefixed his portrait. "The sudden breaking 20 forth of which amazed not only the University, but the more serious part of men in the three nations where they were spread." After remaining a year at Cambridge he removed to Gray's Inn. Mr Hall whose opinions leaned entirely to a republic, now became an author in defence of the Independents. In 1648 he wrote a Satire against the Presbytery;
25 and in the next year An humble Motion to the Parliament of England concerning the advancement of Learning and Reformation of the Universities. London 6 sheets 4to. (Surtees, History of Durham II 295, there is a pedigree p. 297. Wood's Athenae I 455—6). He died 1 August 1656 and was buried in the church of St Margaret's Crossgate, 30 Durham.

P. 76 no. 43 William Twyne was presented by the College to the Rectory of Soulderne, Oxfordshire 3rd March 166½ on the resignation of Thomas Hodges. His monument in the church is destroyed or concealed. But a copy of the inscription is to be found Rawl.
35 MS. B. 400 c. W. Twyne died 31st January 166½ aged 41.

P. 77 no. 46 Simon Humphrey<sup>1</sup>, senior, was for some time master of Melton school, and succeeded at Stamford a man who had come to us from Oundle, and on leaving Stamford became head master of Colchester and then of Merchant Taylors'; I mean William 40 Dugard, a man of considerable learning, whose career at Merchant Taylors' was not so remunerative as it might have been, had he not indulged in a luxury at that time far from remunerative, a strong leaning in favour of royalty. The first intimation that we have of Mr Humphrey's coming among us is in the books of the hall: the members lent 45 a helping hand to bring his goods to Stamford. The sums so raised ranged from 2s. down to 1s. At a common hall 25 Febr. 1637 "these monies under written was gathered for the hiring of carts to bring Mr Humphrey's goods to the towne, he being elected school-master of the free schoole of Stamford." He was buried at St George's, Stamford, 24 Sept. 1657. His will, dated 7 Oct. 1648, proved in the prerogative court of Canterbury 8 Dec. 1657 (Ruthin 532) by Honora, relict and executrix, is very short. All my messuages, lands, tenements etc., in co. Suffolk to my wife and three trustees, to sell the same and to apply the same for payment of debts and to give such equal portions to my two unmarried children of my personal estate; 10 one part to wife, two parts to children. He appoints the said trustees (viz. John Hill, John Bennett gent., and Edward Stokes) supervisors (Mr Justin Simpson).

The Rev. C. J. Robinson in Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica iv 249 says that Dugard was headmaster from 1644 to 1661, but in 15 1650 was suspended by Bradshaw for printing Salmasius' Defensio Regia. On release from prison he set up a private school at St Peter's Hill. He died December 1662. See also Robinson, Register of Merchant Taylors' School i xiv.

P. 77 no. 51 In the excavation of the [Manchester] ship canal 20 opposite Sir Humphrey de Trafford's park, some pieces of tombstones were found laid face downwards as a support for a cartway over a ditch. It would appear as if the tombstones had been removed from Eccles church-yard at some time or other. The inscription is as follows:

REGISTER AND PARISH CLARKE

- P. 81 no. 11 Rosmore. A corruption, probably, of Rhos = a marsh, and mor = the sea, and would no doubt be found near the S. coast of Anglesea, not far from the station at Bodorgan or Ty-croes. The 25 church of Llangwyfan is accessible only at low water, and I remember copying an inscription in it either to one Owen Wood, or in which he is named. One of the parties to a deed dated 13 Febr. 164 $\frac{2}{3}$  is Owen Woode of Llangwyfen, co. Anglesey, esq. (Historical MSS. Report v 420. Mr Beedham).

His successor at 45 the grammar school was William Dugard M.A. He was buried at St Martin's 28 Jan. 166 $\frac{2}{3}$  as "Lyonell Lambe, clerk." His will (in the prerogative court of Canterbury), dated 12 May 1656, names first his younger son Nicholas, daughter Elizabeth. He then proceeds to record cash paid to creditors commencing 21 July 1656, the last being 24 July 1660. Appoints his son Thomas sole executor. Proved 14 Febr. 1661 (May 26) (Mr Justin Simpson).

P. 87 no. 14 A William Gilbert, vicar of Culworth was instituted vicar of Tiffeld 10 June 1686. He was buried at Culworth 20 January 5 1694. (Baker's History of Northamptonshire II 309; see also P. 83 no. 40 and Part I p. xxiv l. 22).

P. 87 no. 25 Should there not be an indication that Huntingdon means the county town of Huntingdon? A house near to All Saints' church is still called Walden House, and one of the charities of the 10 town was founded, if I remember, by a Lionel Walden. I know two Huntingtons (Mr Beedham).

P. 92 no. 34 John Angier was ejected minister of Dedham in Essex. He died 1 September 1677 age 77. Calamy ascribes him erroneously to Emmanuel College. (An Account, &c II 395 ed. 2). He matriculated as a pensioner of Emmanuel College, December 1647 when he signs his name Aungier.

P. 93 no. 2 A Richard Parr was ejected in 1660 at Chippenham.

P. 101 no. 40 Lawrence Raine admitted 1651, was a son of 5 Ambrose Raine, parish clerk of Barnardcastle, and was baptised there 1 April 1631 (Canon Raine). He became a Fellow of the College (as L. Rayne) and took his degrees B.A. 1654, M.A. 1658, B.D. 1665. In my transcript of the MS. graduati I find a James Rayne (Joh.) B.A. 1658 whose name does not appear in the Ad- 10 missions. I conjectured that the two might be brothers, but Canon Raine writes "Laurence Raine had no brother called James." 1641, 16 May. James, son of James Raine of Balderdale, baptised. P. 101 no. 47 On 4 November 1670 the College presented John 15 Garlick to the (sinecure) Rectory of Aberdaron on the death of Mr Gethin or Gething. He died in 1717 when his successor was appointed.

P. 103 no. 5 Mr J. P. Earwaker sends the following extract from the Parish Register of Mobberley, Cheshire:

Mr Jonathan Brideoake Batchelour in Divinity and a long time Fellow and also Junir Burser of St John's Colledge in y<sup>e</sup> University 25 of Cambridge came down in to this Countrey and after y<sup>e</sup> death of Mr James Stanley late Rect<sup>r</sup> of this Parish of Mobberley (who died April y<sup>e</sup> 8th 1674) he married Mary Mallory, Widow of Tho: Mallory gent. (July y<sup>e</sup> 16, 1674) of y<sup>e</sup> old Hall of Mobberley. By w<sup>ch</sup> said Mary his wife, y<sup>e</sup> said Mr Jon: Brideoake had y<sup>e</sup> P<sup>r</sup>esentacon of this Church of 30 Mobberley as true and undoubted Patroness. And in August in y<sup>e</sup> year 1678; The said Mr Jon Brideoake made an exchange of y<sup>e</sup> Liveing of Bexill in Sussex (w<sup>ch</sup> was at y<sup>e</sup> time given him by his Broth<sup>r</sup> Dr Ralph Brideoak late L<sup>d</sup>. Bishop of Chichester) with Dr Bradford for his living of Sephton in Lancashire. This said Jon: Brideoake died at Mobberley 35 y<sup>e</sup> 6th of April 1684 being Low Sunday. So y<sup>e</sup> it appears he was Rect<sup>r</sup> of Mobberley nine years and about 3 quarters and of Sephton five years and a halfe, he was buried y<sup>e</sup> ninth day of April 1684 in y<sup>e</sup> Collegiate Church of Manchest<sup>r</sup> in y<sup>e</sup> Procession way over against y<sup>e</sup> Pulpit, y<sup>e</sup> ancient Buriall place of y<sup>e</sup> family from Chetham Hill near Manchester in 40 Lancashire.

P. 104 no. 14 Robert, second son of Edward (not Robert) Bullock, esq., and Mary his wife, was born 5 Aug. bapt. 9 Aug. 1635 at Merton, Norfolk. "Edward Bullock Esquier and Mary y<sup>e</sup> daughter of Anne de Grey were married the xiiijth of June Anno d<sup>ni</sup> 1633," Merton 45 parish register. The Lady Anne de Grey was a widow, her husband Sir William de Grey, kt., having died 8 months previously (The Rev. F. C. Cass, rector of Hadley, Barnet).

P. 104 no. 16 John Boughton. I have reason for thinking he belonged to the family of the same name seated at Seaton, co. Rutland, descended from a Lancashire family; a branch settled in co. Hunts, see the visitation of 1613 (Mr Justin Simpson).

- 5 P. 107 no. 48 The father, William Armstrong, was instituted to the rectory of South Luffenham on the presentation of David third earl of Exeter and 4th baron Burghley, 25 June 1633 (Mr Justin Simpson).

On January 1698 the college presented John Armstrong to the 10 (sinecure) Rectory of St Florence vacant by the death of Richard Lucy. Armstrong died in 1698 when his successor was appointed.

- P. 110 no. 34 William Cave was Canon of Windsor and domestic chaplain to Charles II. Vicar of St Mary's, Islington, for eighteen 20 years. He was born 30 December 1637 and died 4 August 1713. There is a tablet to his memory on the northern pillar near the pulpit in St Mary's, Islington (Baker MSS. Brit. MS. Harl. 7039 fol. 198 b).

- P. 111 no. 39 On 5 August 1657 the college nominated Richard Thistlethwaite to be Head master of Poeklington School on the 25 cession or departure of Edward Lluelin. Apparently Thistlethwaite did not accept for on 28 September 1657 the College nominated Rowland Greenwood to the post. A Rowland Greenwood of St John's occurs as Pensioner 4 July, 1616. A. B. 1648, M.A. 1623, S. T. B. 1638. His successor at Pocklington was appointed in 1664.

- 30 P. 111 no. 42 Catlidge. Kirtling near Newmarket. I have seen it on a map spelt Catlidge. The name North and the school confirm it. I believe it is commonly called Catlidge even now (The Rev. J. R. Lunn). In a work of the third baron North A forest of varieties (1645) p. 56, we find 'My farewell to Catlidge' (The Rev. J. H. Marsden).

P. 111 no. 46 On 14 April 1660 the college presented Pierce Lewis to the Vicarage of Higham vacant by the death of William Inglett. Lewis resigned in 1665 when his successor was appointed.

- P. 111 no. 47 Hannah, daughter of James Ascough, of Market Over-40 ton, co. Rutland, gent., married for her first husband, 1 April 1642, Isaac Newton, of Woolstrobe in the parish of Colsterworth, co. Lincoln, gent. They were the parents of the illustrious Sir Isaac Newton, born at Woolstrobe 25 Dec. 1642 and baptised at Colsterworth 1 Jan. 1644. His mother remarried, 27 Jan. 1644 at North Witham, the Rev. Barnabas 45 Smith, rector of the parish and was his second wife. Their daughter Mary, baptised at North Witham 6 May 1647, married at Colsterworth 22 Nov. 1666 Mr Thomas Pilkington of Belton, co. Rutland, and had issue, i.e. a son Hasellwood, baptised at Belton 22 Oct. 1667. Mrs Smith, widow of the Rev. Barnabas Smith was buried, says the register, at Colsterworth 4 June 1679. Another authority says she died at Stamford in 1689. In my notes from the parish registers of Lindon, co. Rutland, I found the entry of the marriage, with a licence, of Mr Thomas Pilkington of Belton to Mrs Thomazin Collins of Hambleton 22 Oct. 1668. Thomas 5 Haslewood, formerly of Belton, Rutland, and now of Brigstook, co. Northampton, esq., makes his will 5 Jan. 13 Car. II. (1661—2), proved in the prerogative court of Canterbury 4 July 1662 by Richard Wilkes and Alice Winmorpoole, his creditors (reg. Laud 97). He desires to be buried at South Luffenham, Rutland, by the appointment of his loving kinaman 10 James Digby of South Luffenham, esq. He bequeaths 40s. to his daughter Elizabeth Pillington (? Pilkington), and to each of her children, Henry, Thomas, George, Edward, John, Mary, Jane, Mildred and Frances, 20s. to buy a ring. He appoints his son (sic) Haslewood Pillington esq. sole executor, "who shall have my Belton estate on paying my debts" (Mr 15 Justin Simpson).

P. 112 no. 2 The parish register of St Mary's, Stamford, records the marriage of Mr John Vokes<sup>1</sup>, minister, and Mrs Anne Dexter, 18 20 Sept. 1661. 12 Oct. 1627 Isaac Voke of Stamford, co. Lincoln, and Margaret Luck of the parish of St Laurence, Old Jury, were married at St Laurence Pountney (Mr Justin Simpson).

P. 114 no. 20 John Edwards second son of Thomas Edwards, born at Hartford 26 February 163 $\frac{1}{2}$ . Elected Fellow 23 March 25 165 $\frac{1}{2}$ . His father was of St John's Oxford. Rector of East Codford, Wilts; died about 1686. John Edwards was ordained by Bishop Sanderson, but soon followed his father in the support of Presbyterianism. He was sometime minister of St Peter's Colchester, lecturer at Bury, and minister at St Sepulchre's Cambridge. Some 30 of his writings attracted considerable notice, especially the Socinian Creed, intended to controvert Locke's Reasonableness of Christians as declared in the Scriptures. He died in 1716 (Robinson, Register of Merchant Taylors' School 180).

list of errors in counties p. xi (Mr Beedham).

P. 118 no. 13 and p. xxxiv l. 11. Qy. is the name Towthby a mistake? Towthby is a Lincolnshire name, for 'Willm Tothebie' was churchwarden of 'Saleby cū Thoristrop' in 1566 (Peacock's Eng- 30 lish church furniture p. 131). Boothby, as the name of a person, does not once occur in Peacock's book and the Paynells (or Pagnells) had given their distinctive name to the parish. Qy. therefore whether the entry should not read 'John Towthby of Saleby' (Mr Beedham). I think that a correspondent supplied a reference to a 35 pedigree of Towthby of Towthby: if so, it is mislaid.

P. 118 no. 19 1633 William Emblie, son of Daniel Emblie, baptised
May 2 (Tinwell, Rutland, parish register). Of the same family was Silvester E. of Stamford, father of Thomas Emlyn, a nonconformist divine, baptised at St Michael's, Stamford, 15 June 1663, died 30 July 1741, 40 buried in Bunhill Fields. Silvester E., son of William E., was baptised at Tinwell 20 Febr. 1613, and subsequently settled at Stamford. He seems to have buried his first wife Katherine at St Michael's 25 April 1658, but to what family she belonged I am unable to say. If they were married at Tinwell, the registers are lost from 1644 to 1652. He did not wait very 45 long before he married a second wife, Agnes, eldest daughter of Erasmus Dryden of Tichmarsh, Northants (3rd son of Sir John the first bart.) and Mary his wife (daughter of Henry Pickering D.D., rector of Aldwinchle

All Saints), and consequently sister of the poet laureat, John Dryden. She and her still-born child were buried in St Michael's church 13 Sept. 1660, and here also he married as his third wife, 26 Dec. 1661, Mildred Deering. Her burial I did not find, but he was buried here 14 March 1694, as Silvester Emblin, gent. On the promotion of Edward Johnson a capital burgess to the rank of a comburgess, 26 Aug. 1652, Silvester E. was elected to fill the vacant seat, from which he was removed by virtue of a royal warrant 29 Aug. 1662. He did not pay a strict regard to the municipal regulations then in force against persons harbouring such as had neglected taking up their freedom, as the following extracts from the 10 minute books of the corporation will shew. "1663 Nov. 16. At this haule it is ordered that Sylvester Emblin shall be distrayned not only for the five pounds forfeited for the takinge in of Xtopher Taylor, but also for the xs. per moneth for every moneth that he hath or shall keepe the sayd Xtopher Taylor." At a hall held in Jan. 1664 Taylor was 15 fined 20s. and admitted to freedom. The last child of Silvester's found in St. Michael's registers is Alice, baptised 4 Dec. 1674 and buried 21 May 1675. His grandson Sollom Emblin (born 27 Dec. 1697, d. 30 June 1754) was a barrister at law, and published in 1736 Lord Chief Justice Hale's Pleas for the Crown (Mr Justin Simpson). 20

P. 119 no 20 On 6 February 1678 the College presented Thomas Broughton to the Rectory of Thorington Essex, vacant by the resignation of David Morton. He died in 1708 when his successor was appointed.

P. 119 no. 25 William Lloyd was born at Llangower county Merioneth, 25 near Bala where his father was minister. He was vicar of Battersea county Surrey, Chaplain to the English Merchants' Factory at Portugal and also to the Lord Treasurer Clifford, Prebendary of Cadington Minor in the church of St Paul's London and at length Bishop of Llandaff from which he was elected to the see of Peterborough April 10, confirmed 30 May 16 and enthroned July 12, 1679 to the great misfortune of the church of Llandaff, where he was an excellent active Bishop, and a generous promoter of the welfare of that cathedral, which has since his leaving it been most miserably neglected. He was, after he had sate here six years, removed to Norwich Anno 1685, where he presided till his 35 deprivation February 1, 1690, for not taking the oaths of allegiance to King William and Queen Mary; upon which retiring to Hammersmith near the city of London he died January 1, 1709 aged 72, and was buried in the belfry or tower of that church, which is reckoned a chapel of ease to Fulham, without any memorial. (Browne Willis, Survey of the 40 Cathedrals, III 509).

P. 119 no. 33 On 29 March 1664 the College presented George Dawson to the Vicarage of Sunninghill, Berks, vacant by the promotion of Francis Sayer. He was buried 5 October 1700 at Sunninghill. 45

15 London in 1709. He was appointed Physician in ordinary to the Queen. He was President of the College of Physicians. He died in February 171½. He is the author of Synopsis Conchyliorum and many other works on medicine and natural history. (T. D. Whitaker, History of Craven, 108; Chester, Westminster Abbey Register 221).

20 P. 122 no. 67 Hattonby, Qy. Haconby near Bourn (Mr Beedham). Samuel Cust, 3rd son of Henry Cust, of Pinchbeck, yeoman, (will dated 17 April 1617, proved in the prerogative court of Canterbury 4 May 1618, Meade 51) then of Haconby, espoused Anne second daughter of Henry Burrell, esq., citizen and grocer of London, fined
25 for sheriff, and his second wife Jane (daughter of Henry Jaye of London). She was sister to Sir John Burrell of Dowsby, kt. (created after 1634). The Baronetage says that by her he had an only son Richard, M.P. for the county of Lincoln 1653, twice after the restoration for the borough of Stamford, and created a bart. by letters
30 patent dated 29 March 1677, ancestor of the present Earl Brownlow of Belton, co. Lincoln. Samuel Cust, esq., the father, was buried at St George's Stamford 10 March 166½. Samuel was certainly of Haconby in 3 Car. I, as in a subsidy roll he is assessed at £6 for land there. Samuel the son<sup>1</sup> must have died early in life. In his
35 will, the father designates himself as "Samuel Cust of the Black Friars near Stamford, esq." dated 5 March 166½, proved in the prerogative court of Canterbury 4 April 1663 (Juxon 74). The first bart. married Beatrix daughter and heiress of Thomas Pary of Kirtton, co. Lincoln, esq. Her husband was buried in the same
40 church 5 Sept. 1700 (Mr Justin Simpson).

P. 122 no. 680 On 6 October 1664 the College nominated Thomas Ellyson (described as of Hesleden in the county of Durham) to be Head master of Pocklington School.

Citizen and Goldsmith of London. Banker to King Charles II. Knighted and succeeded his father in the baronetcy 1665. Married Abigail, daughter of Sir John Lawrence, and was living at Hackney 21 April 1667 when he and his wife were "very 30 civil" to Samuel Pepys. He died 1673, and was buried with his wife in the church of St Mary Woolnoth with great pomp, August 18 (Robinson, Register of Merchant Taylors' School 1 p. 184; Gardiner, Register of St Paul's School p. 48; Burke's Extinct Baronetage); Foster, London Marriage Licences. 35

P. 126 no. 37 Richard Nunn, senior<sup>1</sup>, was instituted to Stockerston in 1627, ejected by the parliamentary sequestrators cir. 1652, restored 1660, buried 26 Oct. 1678. Richard Nunn, junior, was baptised at Stockerston 18 Oct. 1638, rector of Godmersham, Kent. His monumental inscription says that he was M.A. and vicar of that 40 place for 7 years. He married Sarah, daughter of Capt. Sampson Hopkins of the city of Coventry, by whom he had issue one son, Richard (who died in his infancy, buried near his father), and Anne yet surviving. being met with in all the six parish registers from 1560 down to the last century. They may be considered as respectable, as a member of the family has filled the aldermanic chair 3 times. Edward C., alderman in 1633-4, met king Charles I and his queen in 1634, bearing the mace
 5 before them, and accompanied by the whole of the body corporate in their robes of office, and riding upon their foot-cloths, as their majesties passed through Stamford, after passing two days at the earl of Westmorland's seat at Apethorpe. He was again alderman in 1642—3 and 1648—9. Edward Camock<sup>1</sup>, the drover's son, afterwards entered into
 10 holy orders, and was for some time at Barrowden, co. Rutland. In the parish register I find the baptisms of the following children of his: Susanna, daughter of Edward C., clerk, and Susanna his wife, 11 Oct. 1668; Edward 6 March 1677; Jane 10 Aug. 1672; Elizabeth 27 Jan. 1673 (? 1672). Mrs Susanna Camock, wife of Mr Edward Camock, 15 clerk, buried 18 Aug. 1675; Robert Wright and Sarah Camock, both of Stamford All Saints, married per lic. 10 Oct. 1682. Soon after the latter event the Rev. Edward Camock had presented to him the living of Seaton, co. Rutland, and was buried in that church 20 Dec. 1686 (Mr Justin Simpson).

20 school in Sussex, but had no settled salary. His recommendation had the desired effect. Mr Herman was preceptor to John Cecil, 5th earl of Exeter, whose father procured for him the confraternity (in 1662) of Brown's Hospital, a post he filled till his death in 1668. On the death
(in May 1662) of the Rev. Thomas Johnson he became (22 July 1662)

P. 151 no. 46 Mr M. H. Peacock, Headmaster of Wakefield Grammar School writes:

What reason is there for supposing Thomas Rokeby was educated at 20 Doncaster and not Wakefield? The masters of both these schools were called Doughty at this time: our Mr Robert Doughty was Master here throughout the whole of the period covered by Part I. And Rookby is a common name in Wakefield Registers at the time.

Both names are well 30 known in the county, though the fortunes of the Tregagles fell as rapidly as they rose". Can any one fix the towns in which Mr Bedford and Mr Dinham kept school?

Dean of St Paul's and died 9th Oct. 1731 in the 85th year of his age. He married Mary second daughter of Sir F. Pemberton Chief Justice of the Common Pleas. The loud and harsh tones of his voice furnished Steele with a subject for several essays in the Tatler 5 (See Nichols' History of Leicestershire vii pp. 772—4, Nichols' History of Hinckley p. 172, Tatler Nos. 54, 56, 61, 67 and 70, Masters' History of Corpus Christi College, Cussan's History of Hertfordshire i, Hundred of Edwinstree p. 186).

The Thistlewheat, or Thistlewhayte family are found at Stamford very early. A Thomas Thistlewayte, taylor, paid 6s. 8d. and was ad- 20 mitted to freedom 27 Nov. 1494 (corp. rec.). Thomas T., sadler, was elected a common councilman 17 Febr. 23 Car. I, a comburgess 27 Aug. 1657, and dead in 1662, as on 27 Aug. in that year another man was elected to fill the vacancy. I have no note anent the career of T. T. the younger (Mr Justin Simpson). In my transcript of the 25 university registers occur Miles Thirlethwait (sic, read This-) Joh. In 1710 there is a memorandum in the Parish Register to record that Mr Ash- 35 burne rebuilt the Vicarage House there, the first stone being laid on 13th May. He died on the 13th January 1712, aged 67, and was buried in the chancel on the 15th. He was succeeded by his son Thomas, who had been his curate, but only held the living two years, when another son Solomon became Vicar, but died in a few 40 months. The parish clerk recording the fact in the Parish Register as follows: "1714 Mr Solomon Ashburne B.D. late Fellow of Lincoln College, in Oxford, and Vicar and Patron of this vicarage dyed in London this 15th day of this instant December, in the 44th year of his age, being Vicar of Crowle only one year, and in Clerkenwell 45 Church under the altar table was there buried the 18th."

P. 164 no. 44 There is an epitaph in Barton church on the wife of Lancelot Dawes, I think this very Lancelot, one line of which is, 'God plucked my rose, that he might take a smell' (Mr William Jackson of Fleatham house, St Bees). This shews that Barton Kirke must be Barton near Penrith, not Kirk Burton, Yorkshire.

P. 165 no. 52 'bred at Richmond, Surrey (Mr Retford)'. 26 Sept. 1662 licence to William Retford of Richmond, Surrey, 'ad erudendum puerorum'<sup>1</sup> (commissary court of Surrey). He was presented by the College to the Vicarage of Holme upon Spalding Moor 27 April 1687. He 30 was also Rector of Thribergh (Hunter, South Yorkshire II 42. There is a pedigree ib. 39).

NOTES ON PART II.

P. 1 no. 1 Pepys' Diary, 28 July 1661 "My cozen Charles Glascocke though very ill is gone to the country to his brother John Glascocke who is dying there."

The following pedigree gives the full connexion of Pepys and Glascock.

The will of John Glascock, parson, of Little Canfield, Essex, is dated 28 July and proved 22 August 1661. It mentions his sons John and Francis, his daughters Margaret, Mary, Elizabeth, Griegond, Hanna and Sarah.

The will of Francis Glascock was proved 20 February 1709. 10 (Mr J. Challenor Smith).

P. 1 no. 4 John Hickman, clerk. Rector of Winsbotham from 1662 to his death in 1671 (Blomefield 8vo ed. vii 519); rector of Bexwell 1666—71 (ibid. 310).

P. 4 no. 40 William Lamplugh was instituted to the Vicarage of 15 Hatfield Peverel in Essex 5 March 1672, but resigned that benefice on being presented by Sir Thomas Darcy to the Vicarage of Dagenham in the same county. He was Prebendary of the Fourth stall in Ripon 1683—1705. He was buried at Dagenham 21 January 1704 (Surtees Soc. Publ. LXXVIII 309).

20

P. 6 no. 2 Edward Sheppard, alderman. Almost certainly the E. S. mayor of Doncaster 1657 and 1669. See Millar's History of Doncaster (Mr Peacock).

P. 6 no. 4. The Audleys were of Welbourn, co. Linc. Their pedigree is in the heralds' visitation of 1662. They were an illegitimate branch of the Lords Audley (Mr Peacock). 25

P. 7 no. 27 Paxton. There is no such place in Lincolnshire. Could it be Panton near Wragby? (Mr Peacock).

Great and Little Paxton are villages near St Neot's in Huntingdonshire. If one of them be meant, Lincoln is a mistake for Huntingdonshire.

P. 7 no. 24 John Gibson was ordained deacon by Archbishop Stern of York at Bishopthorpe on 18 June 1671 and priest at the same place by the same Archbishop on 22 September 1672. He was instituted to Thorp Arch, Yorks, 2 January 1673, to South Kirkby 10 25 May 1675 and to Folkton, Yorks, 8 September 1718. He vacated all these livings by his death. He died 13 December 1727 (see John Hobson's Diary, Surtees Soc. Publ. LXV 276) and was buried on December 15 (Par. Reg. South Kirkby, Yorks). Some letters written by him during his College life have been preserved (Notes 15 and Queries, 6 ser. vii 383, The Eagle, xvii 246—268).

P. 8 no. 36 On 9 March 1692 the College presented James Stretton to the Rectory of Freshwater in the Isle of Wight vacant by the death of Nicholas Bullingham. Stretton died in 1694 and was buried in the College Chapel.

20 P. 9 no. 43 Ambrose Wycliffe married Elizabeth Moulsey. He became Rector of Wycliffe in 1681, buried at Whorlton 9 February 1691 (Surtees' History of Durham, iv 46).

P. 10 no. 61 Kettlethorpe would be better described as nine miles south of Gainsborough, as Newark is in Nottinghamshire (Mr 25 Peacock).

P. 10 no. 63 Francis Fern (graduated as Ferne, entered at Merchant Taylors' School as Fearne) was Head-master of Wisbech Grammar School, Prebendary of Ely 1690. Died 1713. (Robinson, Register of Merchant Taylors' School, i 266).

30 P. 11 no. 66 and p. 15 no. 41 Baldon. Bayldon (Dr Sykes).

P. 12 no. 80 In 1674 the Governors of Sedbergh School wrote to the College, announcing that Edward Fell, the Head-master, died on 25 October and recommending Posthumus Wharton, who had officiated as Usher and supplied Mr Fell's place, for the vacant post.

35 On 7 November 1674 the College, however, nominated Thomas Cox, who never took possession, and resigned his place. After some delay the Governors elected Posthumus Wharton Head-master, 4 December 1674. Mr Wharton married first Barbara Corney, who died 30 September 1681. Secondly Mary, daughter of Sir John 40 Otway, she was buried 8 September 1690, there is a brass to her memory in the chancel of Sedbergh Church. Thirdly he married Margaret Cowper, daughter of Mr Cowper of Pedgocroft in Sedbergh. Posthumus Wharton resigned the office of Head-master 26 June 1706. He died 27 March 1714 (Platt, History of Sedbergh).

45 P. 14 no. 26 John Sutton, Rector of Hardingham (Dashwood, Visitation of Norfolk, 121).

P. 15 no. 35 Thomas Tomkinson subscribed to Collier's Church History. He was minister of Trinity Church, Cambridge, in 1683

(Cole MSS xix 1009). A non-juror. Died 9 May 1724, buried in the College Chapel 11 May 1724 (Parish Register All Saints', Cambridge). See the Diary of A. De La Pryme (Surtees Soc. Publ. LIV 196).

P. 15 no. 37 Hawsom. Masham? (Dr Sykes).

P. 16 no. 43 On 9 January 1698 the College presented John 5 Armstrong to the (sinecure) Rectory of St Florence, Pembrokeshire, on the death of Richard Lucy. He died in 1698 when his successor was appointed.

P. 16 no. 44 Henry Harward admitted Fellow of Mr Plat's foundation in St John's College at Cambridge March 13 1688, was afterwards Vicar 10 of Great Thurlow and Master of the Free School at Little Thurlow in Suffolk, where he died March 1714. He married Bridget daughter to — Turner of Great Bradley in Suffolk, gentleman, relict of Robert Billingsley, Rector of that parish. (From the MS. Pedigree referred to in the note on P. 75 no. 5.) This pedigree goes on to state that Henry 15 Harward's father was:

Henry (a mistake for John?) Harward of Merce in Surrey, descended from the ancient family of Harward or Hereward of the same place.

And that his mother was Margaret, daughter of John Plat of Rickmeresworth.

P. 16 no. 46 Edmund Ferrar or Farrer was married at Rotherham Parish Church to Martha Fowke 29 August 1683. He is described in the parish register as being a Schoolmaster. So that we may identify him with the Mr Ferrar, Ferrer or Ferrour who was Master at that School (see index, p. 373). Mr Farrer became Headmaster 25 of Wakefield Grammar School. He died at Wakefield 7 April 1703 and was buried in the parish church where there is a monument to the memory of himself and his wife. She (Martha Fowke) was a sister of Phineas Fowke, Fellow of the College of Physicians, and niece of the wife of the Rev. Luke Clayton, Vicar of Rotherham, and 30 is mentioned in Mrs Clayton's will. On 15 June 1703 administration of the goods of Edmund Farrer was granted to Anthony Farrer of Worsborough, clerk, schoolmaster, cousin-german. This is probably Anthony 'Ferrer' admitted 11 September 1685 (P. 104 no. 9). (Peacock, History of Wakefield Grammar School, 131, 2). Phineas 35 Fowke mentioned above practised as a physician in Shrewsbury and gave books to the School there (History of Shrewsbury School, 176).

P. 19 no. 23 Humphrey Sandford succeeded to the family estates The Isle, Shrewsbury on the death of his elder brother Richard in 1676. He died in 1712 and was buried in St Chad's, Shrewsbury. 40 He was a benefactor to the College.

P. 20 no. 26 Read Jacob, as it stands in the register.

P. 20 no. 28 Titus Oates entered Merchant Taylors' School September 1656 but did not remain there more than a year. (Robinson, Register of Merchant Taylors' School, I 272).

45

His entry at Caius College is as follows:

Oates, Titus; son of Samuel Oates, clerk, Rector of Hastings, Sussex. Born at Oakham, Rutlandshire. At School, in London

under Mr Mackmillian, one year, and under other masters for about three years. Age 18. Admitted Sizar, June 29, 1667. Tutor Mr Ellys (Venn, Admissions to Gonville and Caius College, 265).

Mr Du Gard was Master of the Merchant Taylors' School while Oates was there.

P. 20 no. 29 Woorsop may be Warsop near Mansfield.

P. 21 no. 37 Vaughan is no doubt (here and p. 48 no. 15) a lapsus calami for Vaughan. Neither Vaughan took a degree.

P. 21 no. 41 Halham. Halsham? (Dr Sykes).

10 P. 21 no. 49. The father was rector of Southery from 1642 to his death in 1670 (Blomefield vii 436).

P. 22 no 57 Morant in his History of Essex, i 178, says that Thomas Allen, B.D. of St John's College, was elected Master of Colchester School in 1702 (see p. 183 l. 39). This must be Thomas 15 Alleyn of this entry B.A. 1672, M.A. 1676 and S.T.B. 1683. He died in 1723.

P. 22 no. 60 Thomas Naden was a benefactor to the College. He was buried in Ribchester Church 31 January 171½ (Smith, T. C. and Shortt, J., History of the Parish of Ribchester, pp. 250—1).

20 P. 24 no. 81 The Parish Register of All Saints', Cambridge, has this entry among the burials for 167½: "Sr Burrowe of St John's in our Chancell February 14."

P. 25 no. 12 John Wicliff. Johannes is written twice, but in the graduati he appears as James Wickliffe, B.A. 167½.

25 P. 25 no. 13 Edward Hardwick B.A. 167½, M.A. 1679.

P. 27 no. 35 William Ashton was descended from the family of Ashton-under-Lyme. In 1682 he became Rector of Carlton Notts and in 1685 Rector of Prestwich cum Oldham, both of which he held till his death. He died 25 February 1731 aged 82 and was 30 buried in Prestwich church (Baines, History of Lancashire, ii 569).

P. 46 nos. 56 and 57 It seems probable that Robert and Edward Dymock were the grandsons of Sir Edward Dymoke of Scrivelsby, Champion to King Charles II. Edward Dymock (or Dymoke) the father was second son of Sir Edward D. From the parish register of Scrivelsby it would appear that "Edward Dymoke 35
Jun' and Abigail Snowden were married, the 18 of July Anno Domi 1654."

"Robert Dymoke, the sone of Edward Dymoke Jun' and Abigall was born the 27 of Aprill and was baptized the same day" (1655).

So that this Robert Dymoke would be 18 years of age in 1673, 40 agreeing with the age in the College Register.

On December 1, 1674, Robert Dimocke, son and heir of Edward D. of Tumby co. Lincoln, Esq. was admitted a student of Gray's Inn. Tumby is a churchless township belonging to the parish of Kirkby-on-Bain. (Canon Lodge, Scrivelsby the Home of the Champions 45 162, 172; Foster, Admission Register of Gray's Inn 320. Letters from Canon Lodge.)

Robert Dymoke (of Grebby Hall) died 1714 and Edward Dymoke

P. 50 no. 4 Joseph Ludlam became Vicar of Wath-upon-Dearne in 20 1661 and died in 1678. There is no mention of his family in the parish register, so that he was probably born before his father became Vicar of Wath (J. R. L.).

P. 50 no. 47 Ninyan Colling buried at Kirkby Ravensworth 2 Jan. 1688 (Canon Raine).

25 P. 50 no. 49 William Smith the father (of Clare Hall) was Rector of Lowther. John Smith went as chaplain to the Earl of Bath on his Embassy to Spain. He died in Cambridge 30 July 1715 and was buried in the College Chapel, where there is a monument to his memory. The inscription (printed by Le Neve) was written by 35 Thomas Baker. (Surtees, Durham, iv 98, 100 pedigree; Carter, History of Cambridge, 258—261, Thoresby, Yorkshire, 21, 515, Life in Biogr. Brit.) His brother was admitted to the College 11 June 1689, p. 116, no. 28.

He was Envoy to the Elector of Bavaria and other princes in the reign of William III. Under Queen Anne he was one of four Privy Councillors of Prince George of Denmark and Envoy Extraordinary to all the Italian Princes except the Pope. In this last office he accomplished what is commonly regarded as the great work of his life, the conclusion of a peace with Victor Amadeus, Duke of Savoy, afterwards king of Sicily, in the interests of the Vaudois and the persecuted churches of the Waldenses. He died 11 June 1727. A monument to his memory in the church of Hodnet, Salop, contains a brief account, from his own hands, of the employment of his life. 35 Among the College Archives is a volume containing copies of leases of the Platt estates from 1676 to 1800. Within this is preserved a sheet of four pages folio, filled with pedigrees. The paper is headed :

The copy of Mr Platt's Pedigree enter'd upon Record at the Herald's 40 Office in the College of Arms London.

The following Genealogy's containing in four pages the kindred of William Platt Esqr. Founder of several Fellowships and Scholarships in St John's College at Cambridge, I Hilksiah Bedford A.M. one of the Founders kinsmen within name I do certify whom it may concern, is 45 drawn by a faithful and able hand from sufficient Authorities according to the direction of the Rev. Master (Dr Robert Jenkin) and Senr Fellows of the said College, by whom I am required to sollicite the entering thereof at the College expense in the Herald's Office: Witness the subscription of my name this 30th day of October, A.D. 1721.

H. BEDFORD.

This pedigree was no doubt put forward to establish the claim of Hilkiah Bedford and his sons to be kin to the Founder of the Platt 5 Fellowships and Scholarships. It will be seen presently how shadowy this kinship was.

Of himself he says:

Hilkiah Bedford A.M. Born in Hosier Lane London, July 23, 1663 was admitted November 4, 1679, the first scholar of Mr Plat's Foundation 10 at St John's College in Cambridge and admitted Fellow of the same Foundation April 8, 1685. He was instituted Rector of Wittering in Northamptonshire November 27, 1687, depriv'd of both his preferments for not taking the New Oath. Married April 14, 1702, and is living this present month of July A° 1721 within the parish of St Margaret, West- 15 minster. Chaplain to the Right Honourable Heneage, Earl of Winchilsea, registered in the Faculty Office February 7, 1718.

Of his wife Hilkiah Bedford says:

Ellis daughter to William Cooper of Scarborough in Yorks, Master and Mariner, by his wife Philadelphia the 5th daughter of Henry Smith of 20 West Harrington in the County of Durham Esq., by his first wife Elizabeth Chapman. Which Henry Smith was half brother to Sir George Baker of Crook in the County of Durham Kt by their mother Mary daughter of — Heron of Chipchase in Northumberland Gentleman; married first to Oswald Baker afterwards to William Smith Esq. Coun- 25 sellor at Law. Whence the said Ellis Cooper was allied in blood to George Baker of Crook Esquire, who by his executors founded six exhibitions at St John's College in Cambridge.

Of his father he writes:

Hilkiah Bedford, Citizen and free Stationer of London, eldest son to 30 Thomas Bedford of Sibsey near Boston in Lincolnshire by his wife... daughter of Hilckiah Crook M.D. Physician to King James I. and King Charles I. (the learned author of Μικροκοσμογραφία an accurate English Body of Anatomy, in Folio dedicated in Latin to both the aforesaid Kings successively). The said Thomas Bedford was one of the Undertakers of 35 the Inclosure called East and West Fenn lying north of Boston; part of the East Fenn being his own Estate; where having built a stately house upon a Hill that still bears his name, foreseeing storm against the Inclosure he remov'd it to a pleasant place in his Estate near Nordike Bridge called Bedford Lane. He died May 2, 1655. 40

Of his mother he writes:

Mary eldest daughter to Richard Gardiner of Thame in Oxfordshire by Anne his wife, second daughter to (the before named) John Plat of Rickmeresworth, was married April 1, 1656, about the age of 14 years to the said Hilckiah Bedford: who lived before the fire of London in Hosier 45 Lane, within the Parish of St Sepulcher. And being burnt out there lived afterwards in Fleet Street within the Parish of St Dunstan's in the West, where they were both buried. She Sep. 21, 1682. He May 6, 1689.

John Plat was the third son (by his first wife) of Sir Hugh Plat of Bednall Green in the County of Middlesex, Knight, (a great Virtuoso and one that wrote several useful Books of Philosophical Experiments, Chymistry, Husbandry, Gardening &c.) was baptised at St James' Garlick
 5 Hithe 3 May, 1552 and probably the same Hugh Plat that was of St John's College in Cambridge Admissus in matriculam Academiae Cantabrig. Nov. 12, 1568. He was knighted by King James I at Greenwich May 22, 1605 being then of London.

William Platt the founder of the Fellowships and Scholarships
 10 was the fourth child of Sir Hugh Platt by his second wife. So that he was half brother to John Platt.

It will be observed that Hilkieah Bedford draws attention to the fact that his children were of "Founders kin" to both the Platt and Baker Foundations. The former through their father and grand-15 mother, the latter through their mother. Hilkieah Bedford died 28 November 1724 and is buried in the churchyard of St Margaret's, Westminster. A son, William Bedford, A.B. 1721, and a grandson, Hilkieah Bedford, A.B. 1772, were of the College.

Hilkieah Crook, his grandfather, was also of St John's College, A.B.
 20 1598, M.B. 1599, M.D. 1604 (Munk, Roll of the College of Physicians, 2nd ed. i 117).

P. 168 no. 47 Brearton (Dr Sykes).

P. 168 no. 51 Alberforth. Aberford W. R. (Canon Raine and Dr Sykes). Perhaps Alverthorpe near Wakefield; the agricola for the father makes it rather doubtful (the Rev. J. R. Lunn). 45

P. 168 no. 52 John Wilson rector of Ringstead St Andr. from 1687 to his death in 1719 (Blomefield x 345), vicar of Hunstauton 1703, succeeded by Edmund Wilson in 1719, who continued there to

P. 174 no. 27 Hallaton. In Clergy List I find Hallaton with Blaston S. Michael r. in Leicestershire; and one of the patrons is the Rev. G. C. Fenwicke. He is the son (I believe) of the late vicar of Aston near Birmingham, and I have been told they are an old Leicestershire family. I should think this is the place (J. R. L.).

P. 174 no. 30 Thirkleby. Thirkleby near Thirsk (J. R. L.). See p. 182 no. 10.

P. 175 no. 35 Sol-Hill, Salop. I should doubt this being meant for Solihull, although that is vulgarly called Sillul; it is on the opposite side of Birmingham to Shrewsbury, so that I don't see how it could be placed in Shropshire by any mistake. There is an Old Hill in a detached part of Salop, some 6 miles west of Birmingham (J. R. L.).

P. 176 no. 51 Sheviog. Ysceiflog, in the neighbourhood of 5 Northop. For the elision of Y, I may notice that in a map I once saw Spitty printed for Ysppyty, a village near the source of the river Conway. (J. R. L.)

P. 176 no. 55 There are two Aldboroughs in Yorkshire; I think this must be the one near Boroughbridge. I therefore suppose 10 Tanfield to be, not in Durham, but in Yorkshire, 6 miles N.N.W. of Ripon (J. R. L.). The Rev. R. W. Marriott searched the Aldborough (near Boroughbridge) baptismal register 1685—90, without finding the name Nicholson; nor does a Nicholson occur as vicar at that date. The other Aldborough is near Hull. 15

P. 180 no. 36 Jonathan Clough, of Christ's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1688, M.A. 1683, appears to have been rector of Casterton Magna 1687—1728 (Mr Justin Simpson). John Clough entered Rugby School in 1703, when he is described as of 'Bridge Casterton, eldest son' (Rugby School Register, 17). 45

For his works see Watt. 10

P. 186 no. 5 Thomas Fountayne the father died 5 February 1709, aged 70, and was buried at Melton. There is a monument to him in Melton Church. From this we gather that Thomas, the son, "a youth of great hopes, died 20 September 1708 of small pox, in the first year of his admission to St John's College, Cambridge, and lyes 15 buried at Barkway in Hertfordshire." (Hunter, South Yorkshire, i 367, where there is a pedigree.)
